DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 13-27 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hessel et al. 6,726,660. Hessel discloses the invention as claimed noting figures 1-8 comprising: An implant (1) for implantation into an animal or a human body, comprising an outer ring (2), that an inner ring (13) is arranged in the outer ring about a joint axis, and that a number of connecting links (10) extending between the outer ring and the inner ring; wherein the connecting links are distributed at a mutual angular distance along a ring and jointly forming a number of openings between the inner ring and the outer ring; wherein the connecting links are rods ("10" 7:43); wherein the implant further comprises at least one elongated anchoring means (8) secured in at least one opening (4) at an anchoring end and extending outwards from the at least one opening to a free end; secured by a thread (9); made of mesh.
